Kensington Gold Mine
Southeast Conference
September 2012
38,052 Pounds of Minerals and Energy Are Needed Each Year for Every American

Every American Born Will Need...

- 32,796 lbs. Salt
- 12,776 lbs. Clays
- 1.09 million lbs. Stone, Sand, & Gravel
- 32,052 Pounds of Minerals and Energy Are Needed Each Year for Every American

- 935 lbs. Copper
- 467 lbs. Zinc
- 73,824 gallons Petroleum

- 1,460 Troy oz. Gold
- 857 lbs. Lead
- Plus 40,508 lbs. Other Minerals & Metals

- 16,904 lbs. Phosphate Rock
- 529,097 lbs. Coal
- 5,064 lbs. Bauxite (Aluminum)
- 27,810 lbs. Iron Ore
- 38,638 lbs. Cement
- 6.28 million cu. ft. Natural Gas

2.96 million pounds of minerals, metals, and fuels in their lifetime

Learn more at www.miiio.org
Jualin - 1918

Jualin Mill & Lions Head Mountain (ca. 1918) – Facing NW
Kensington Today
Coeur Alaska began operations at the Kensington in July 2010. The development of Kensington could not have been possible without all the support it received. Along with 76% of the Juneau community, including too many businesses and individuals to name here, some of those instrumental in these efforts include:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>The Governor’s Office</th>
<th>Goldbelt</th>
<th>Southeast Conference</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Alaska Congressional Delegation</td>
<td>Kake Tribal</td>
<td>JEDC</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Alaska State Legislature Commerce</td>
<td>Klukwan</td>
<td>Juneau Chamber of</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Alaska Dept. of Labor</td>
<td>Kootznoowoo</td>
<td>Haines Borough Chamber</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CCTHITA</td>
<td>Huna Totem</td>
<td>Alaska State Chamber</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
The Kensington Story

- Purchased initial interest in 1987
- Acquired 100% ownership in 1995
- Started construction in 2005
- U.S. Supreme Court decision in June 2009
- Commenced commercial production in July 2010
- $580 million invested in Kensington since 1995
Economic Benefits

• 312 full-time, year-round employees
• Over $35 million in direct annual payroll & benefits budgeted for 2012
• 250 indirect jobs
• 2nd largest private employer in terms of payroll
• Approximately $2.15 million in CBJ taxes by Kensington and its employees in annual property and sales tax
Gold Rush Days 2012
4th of July 2012
Community Involvement

Kensington Bowling Bear team at the Bowl for Kids’ Sake annual fundraiser

The Gold Diggers
Coeur Alaska Relay For Life Team
COMING TO A YARD NEAR YOU!
2012 American Cancer Society Relay for Life Team Fundraiser
Flushing Away Cancer with The Purple Toilet
Community Involvement
Learn United – Volunteer Reading Tutor Program Sponsor
Thank you!