Kensington Gold Mine Today

Mill & Lion's Head Mountain – Facing North
New Warehouse Building
Water Treatment Facilities
Upgrade
Addition of 96 person dormitory to current 120 person camp
Underground Paste Plant under construction
New Meeting Yurt
TOTAL CONSTRUCTION-PHASE ECONOMIC IMPACTS

• During construction and development of Kensington:
  - $443 million development cost
  - $150 million flowed through the Juneau economy in payroll, contracts and purchases
  - 387 workers at peak of construction
  - 200 Alaskans, 185 from Southeast and 120 from Juneau
  - $55 million in total payroll
  - $40 million payroll in Southeast
  - $30 million payroll in Juneau
Coeur Alaska has upheld a long commitment to local and Native hire.

370 total jobs and $32 million in annual payroll

- 208 full-time, year-round employees
- Over $25 million in direct annual payroll
- 170 indirect jobs
- $7 million in indirect payroll
- 2nd largest private employer in terms of payroll
- Approximately $2.15 million in CBJ taxes by Kensington and its employees in annual property and sales tax
Training and Education

Partnership with UAS, MAPTS, and the Department of Labor

- UAS offers programs for:
  - MSHA classes offered free through ADOL grant funding
  - Diesel Mechanics
  - Entry-Level Mine Laborer
  - Upgrade training for experienced miners and mine mechanics

Scholarships:
- Coeur Alaska Environmental Science Award
- Coeur Alaska, Hecla Greens Creek and Southeast Conference
Thank You