

Southeast Alaska COVID-19 Business Impacts Survey: Skagway

Southeast Alaska business leaders were asked how COVID-19 is impacting their businesses. Surveying took place between March 20th and 25th. Responding Skagway employers have already laid off 29% their total workforce due to the COVID-19 virus, with an average of 4 layoffs per organization. Nearly two-thirds of Skagway businesses expect to cut more staff shortly. Two-thirds respondents risk closing permanently.

Skagway Businesses Responding

Total Businesses Responding = 28

Representing 280 current workers

Respondents laid off 112 staff already
(or put into workers into unpaid status)

Avg. current workers per org. = 10 (27 in peak)

Avg. workers laid off so far per business = -4

Do you expect to make employment cuts in the future due to COVID-19? Yes = 61%
Maybe = 26%

Have you experienced any disruption in business due to COVID-19?

Is your business at risk of closing permanently because of impact caused by COVID-19?

How much do you project your revenues will change in the first half of 2020 compared to 2019?

If you are at risk of closing, how many weeks of the current situation do you think you will be able to survive? = 16 weeks avg.

Please estimate the percent revenue decline to your business due to COVID-19 in the last 30 days (compared to same period in 2019)?

= -73%

Has your supply chain been disrupted?

Yes = 78%

Rate your level of concern about how COVID-19 will continue to impact your business:

